Description:

Fantastic rural house in the village of Iznate MALAGA. In Spain.

You will be able to live the experience of enjoying the pure air, the incredible and authentic views of nature, which are similar to seeing a horizon of different blues (that of the sea and that of the sky) as well as the thousand and one shades of the earth in all its splendor. Enjoy everything from a coffee to the sun itself from your large glass terrace. So you can enjoy the good weather both in summer and in autumn and winter. During the day you can see how the boats sail the sea, in the evening the sunsets will make you feel a unique and original sensation when you see the sunset. At night the moon will want to settle on the terrace and illuminate any desire to be happy. The house is located at a higher altitude than others, which gives it an advantage in terms of views.

The house is located in Iznate, in an exclusive area for its views. You can access it by a 1km unpaved road from the provincial road from the A-7 motorway along the coast to the town of Iznate.

It consists of a large outdoor area, covered terrace with barbecue.
